VOL. VIII.

ration, says "there is no law in the its length of ears in an exceedingly painand asks—"if he owns a thousand acres flowing with first-class, live, paying adin one patch, whose business is it but his vertisements, it is hardly necessary for builder N. H. Baldwin to creet two own?" We may answer, the Creator's. us to confute the weak and stupid asperdivellings upon Spruce street, adjoining. His command and reason is: "The sions of our opponents, be they in this pro land shall not be sold forever, for the Broomb has been predicted, and hoped Lovers of fine music should note the chapter of Levitions, which decrees for, and perhaps prayed for, by some Theo. Thomas's full orchestra and An against absolute land ownership, the seven years ago, uptil to day ; but some in Orange next Thursday night. See how it has survived a dozen or more pa-advertisement. one as agrarianism and the other as so-cialism; you may say "whose business is it?" and so Tweed said, "what are you sublime fact that there is "THINKING BY THE PROPLE" on this great economic subject of mine and thine. The Rev.

Mr. De La Matyr's larguage may be loud," but there is no ambiguity in his arraignment of usury. The Daily might arraignment of St. James and manufacture clay at Siverville, Middlesex county. Hon. Miles Ross, of New Brunswick, is one of the incornerate and wealthy resident of Bloomfield, discussions. derisively say "The Judgment Day is coming." Many a truth is spoken in derision, and the Day may come to some "pampered editors and orators" as the clanging of a bell in the night; it may summon them when, sleeping off their The window glass blowers of Glassne, they least expect it.

Puchic School Property.

A supplement the New Jersey School proved by the Governor, provides that by consent of the school district at an annual meeting, the trustees may acquire land for school purposes by purchase or land fo Law, passed by the legislature and ap to Under one of the old bine laws some condemnation. The price of the laud with their new masters, and a large ma- took place in Bloomfield Cemetery. so taken, if not agreed upon between the trustees and owner, is to be determined by three commissioners appointed to: dred acres on Brigantine Beach, N. J., street, New York. He moved to Bloom the purpose by one of the Sapreme for $40 000, for a seaside resort. These field about thirty years ago, and was for from the decision of the commissioners money, therefore they pay hard cash for facture of pener, his extensive mills have and bring the case before a jury. The law is an important one, and will bear The Experimental Agricultural Sta ing situated on Bloomfield avenue, they discussion. There is the absolute necession has been established at New Brunswick. Centre. aity of sequiring property by some meth- Prof. Cook, the State Geologist, has been od for school purposes. The price that appointed director, at a salary of $1,000 should be paid for it is the next consid- per year. A. T. Neal, formerly of Mideration, and while all admit the school dletown, has been appointed Prof. Cook's assistant at a salary of $1,400. house would be a public benefit, it might be a private injury to the adjacent property. So far as the law would protect asked on Monday for an advance in their born Phillip born Phillip unscrupulous and selfish owner who men were told that they were not wanted Durning Chas might ask an unreasonable price for his longer. property, imperatively required, its jus-tice is unquestionable. But at the same time, the taking away of a man's inglien.

A very funny fish was cought recently Henry Johanna in Newark Bay, and has since been on Hesckert Josephine exhibition at Vreyland's Hotel, Bayonne. Hissen Howard M. time, the taking away of a man's inalienable right to fix the price at which he will part with his property, and that is the first specimen ever caught in this any "advertised." property, it may be, the result of many latitude, years' honest labor, is extremely unjust the remedies, analyze soils where exhausted, and determine what particular fertilizers are adapted to particular soils. The hoard, as its pame implies, will establish stations throughout the farming districts, where the members will be able to particular or "beer men" as their opists. . The subjects now on the programme for consideration include the renewal of their licenses. The latter is made an important subject of the state nearly 80,000 bushels of these berries are rain.

Agricultural Experiments.

Orange and was attended by about a secone of equestrians, many of whom came from Newark. Six or eight ladies made up the number of riders. Owing to the advanced state of the season and the early planting of farm lands, the Hunt has decided to suspend their meets. Hunt has decided to suspend their meets ought to be abolished in any event.— of the day, where you can buy art counts and the regular Fall season.

Central N. J. Times.

The cheap, and by no means clever, the "postal card" business, and shows sonal property every Thursday at been started in Newark and the town- The last term of glad of it. We have erased from our Mr. Plumley, an able, carnest and suc-books the names of a very few whose desaful christian worker from New York, and flatter and lie has no business run- Horace Pierson, real estate age species being, we trust, more appreciative in the public estimation, and paying advertisement of Messrs E. & J. C. Wilbetter in the long run, than a timid neu-liams, of the Chestant Hill Nursery, tralism, blatant bulderdash, or nickly Harrison avenue, Montelair. They have other stores, and the matter of dealing there left optional with the employees.

tion, authorized by the act of last winter, known as the turnpike, just below the

About eighty employees in the drill

It is known as a "finmp sucker," and is a native of the West Iudian waters, and

A contract for a new reservoir for Morristown, N. J., has been made. It in this week's issue: and will cost $11,000. The work is to be and Broad streets. Newark. begun immediately.

The act of the legislature organizing. The local election in Bordentown on Monday was very exciting, the temper. 794 Broad street, Newark. likely to be an advance step in farming polls. The bar-room keepers wanted 635 Broad street, Newari. in this state. The board of direction is unlimited license. The congregations J. U. Kummun, Seeds, 580 Brod streen authorized to analyze fertilizers; exam. of the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyine into all diseases in grain, fruits and terian churches met in the Trinity Methvegetables, discover the causes and apply the pastors delivered political addresses in the southeastern part of the St to meet and confer with the agricultur. ponents called them, had a majority of ninety six. The barroom and hote keepers will now make application for a

80,000 bushels of these berries are rain- fensive to prove that he did not do it all ed every year, to the great financial loss with his own hand. He is a colored The last bunt of the season of the Essex County Hunt took place on Wednesday. The meet was held at South Orange and was attended by about a score of equestrians, many of whom came from Newark. Six or eight ladies

ment of verseity and virility in journal- Adolph Steirs of New York, a present and other choics varieties of vines and REAL fruit trees. They are also sols agents for Mapes' fertilizers for Montelair and jority of the people denoduce the action Mr. Conger at the time of his death was a member of the firm of Miller & Conger. The Quikers have purchased four hun- ponded warehouse, Nos. 88 and 90 Pearl facture of paper, his extensive mills be > fold, Essex County, New Jersey ON WE Link N W Pussy James T

will have a capacity of 14:000,000 gallons | G. F. Jones & Co., Hats, corner Orange MAX STABLES & Co., Clothing, New York. W. B. DOTT & Co., Ladles' Fancy Goods,

WANTED. have several applications for

KUMERLE'S SEED STORE No. 530 Broad St.,

On Thursday Evening, April 22, 1880 AT 8 O'CLOCK.

et Office, on April 12th and 13th from

FANCY GOODS.

I. E. Lyon & Co. 633 BROAD STREET,

Cor. New Street, NEWARK, N. J.

A. T. MORRIS,

COWS WITH CALVES FOR SALE CHEAP.

Enquire of JOHN P. MANPINID. Eggs for Hatching.

ESTATE AGENT.

Garden, Field and Flower

THEODORE THOMAS, SPRING MANTLES and JACKETS AND HIS UNRIVALED DRCCESTRA

Admission.

Reserved Seats may be secured, with out extra charge, at the Music Hall Tick-A. M. to 9 P. M. and afterwards a Parsons' and Davis' in Music Hall in Harness and Borse Equipments, Marhet St., near Bread, Newark. Will roo buy?

ENQUIRE OF

W. V. S. & CO.

SPRING, 1880.

Very attractive lines of Spring Dry Goods. Fancy Goods, Shawis, Dolmans, Circular, and Walking Jackets.

W. V. SNYDER & Co., NEXT TO POST OFFICE. BROAD STREET NEWARK, N. J.

SPECIALIBRATICATIONS

LADIES' HOSIERY, Plain and Fancy. Gentlemen.

A specially handsome variety and all TOWELS, Ramask and Huck, from 10

these are 5 and 10c, pair under regular GENTLEMEN'S HALP Hose, 10 to 50c. ACE GOODS for Ladies and Children LADIES' KID GLOVES, warranted.
An elegant line of fine goods. GENTS' " at 81.25

W. B. DOTY & CO. $1.50. 749 Broad Street, Newark, M

Come to the Large and New

CLOTHING STORE COLYER & CO. and 817 BROAD STREET,

NEWARK, N. J. STYLISH AND ELEGANT SPRING SUIT. We make a specialty of and devote one large store to Boys' & Children's Clothing, IN EVERY KIND, QUALITY AND PRICE.

DANIEL HALSEY is with this Firm. FINE CUSTOM GOODS TO ORDER

COLYER & CO. 815 and 817 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

2個日本

BLOOMFIED, N. J., Opposite Intersection of Broad St., and Bloomfield Ave.

The undersigned keeps constantly on hand everything pertain ing to a FIRST CLASS MARKET, and sells at prices consistent CARLEL CARL. with the times

BEEF LAMB VEAL MUTTON TORK, POULTRY, CORNED MEATS

GREAT BARGAINS

CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS

FURNITURE.

WM. N. RANDALL 728 & 730 Broad Street,

Grand Spring Opening

FURNINGEB. Carpets, Oil Cloths.

A. H. VAN HORN'S. 78 MARKET ST.,

(Factory 28 Campbell St.) Valuation of Parlor Suits, Lounger Walnut and Enamel Bedroom Suits, Extension Tables, Hair, Rusk,

WHOLESALE PRICES. Carpets, Carpets, & Oil Cloths. CHINA, CROCKERY, GLASS-WARE, PLATED-WARE, CUTLERY, Etc.,

Bloomfield, Dec. 6, 1679.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 per cent.

THE BLOOMPIELD SAVINGS INSTITUTION.

To Let.

SMALL HOUSE on Montgomery street.

HALF A HOUSE on Franklin St. with 5 Rooms HOUSES FOR SALE

MISS ENMA L. BODD.

Vocal and Instrumental Music. STATE ST., BLOOMPIELD, N. J.

Brilliant Fire Test Oil Also Lamps, Chimneys, Fixtures, &c.,

J. ADAM WISSNER,

PRANKLIN STREET, pp. Westenluster Church, | Bloomfield, M. &

Lawn Mowers. Clothes Wringers,

MACHINISTS.

MERCHANT TAILOR

CINTRING & GENTS FURNISHING COOPS.

JOHN RASSBACH, HAM, SHOULDERS, BACON, &c. Florist and Nurseryman PLANTS, GUT PLOVERS, PLORAL DISSE Fruit and Shade Trees. Vibes, Svergrepos, Vegetable. Fronto in teams Oct. Michael and Macille Avec.